Practical information – how to get there:

The Netherlands in general is very accessible and convenient in (public) transport.

Eindhoven train station and Eindhoven Airport are the closest transfer hubs near the Summercamp location and we will have a pick up service for both, the train station and the airport. This will be provided by our own preparation team. The exact pick up times will be announced before the Summercamp will start.

Bus: From Eindhoven train station there's a bus station. Bus line 150 runs every 30 minutes. The bus stops directly in front of the Summercamp location.

Train: There are trains from Schiphol Airport (Amsterdam) and Düsseldorf Airport (Germany) to Eindhoven train station. The trains driving on a frequent and regular basis.

All participants will receive detailed information about how to get to the Summercamp location e.g. pick up request etc. If you have questions already, such as other airports or transport possibilities, don't hesitate to ask and send an email.

Activities:

Our Summercamp program offers several activities to fulfill your needs include sports, daytrips, workshops, presentations and learning something about the dutch culture. Of course there's plenty of free time to get to know each other.

Further information:

A reminder: all the presentations, activities, workshops, social engagement and communication are in English. We do not want discourage people to come, because we want to be as open and tolerant as possible for all participants and all nationalities. But it's strongly recommended to have the intention to improve your English language and communication skills.
